Notes:

- Are there questions on Homework 5?
- In case you can't tell, I like to teach using a hybrid prospective-experiential-retrospective technique. I consider it particular important to reflect on what you might have learned after you attempt the learning.
- Reading for Friday: Numeric Values in Scheme.
- Dr. Davis and I are talking about DrFu this afternoon. The talk is meant primarily for CS folks, but if you want to come and listen, I will give you extra credit.
